

Post Office, Boston, Mass.,

(DICTATED.)

Office of the Postmaster.

June 23, 1887.

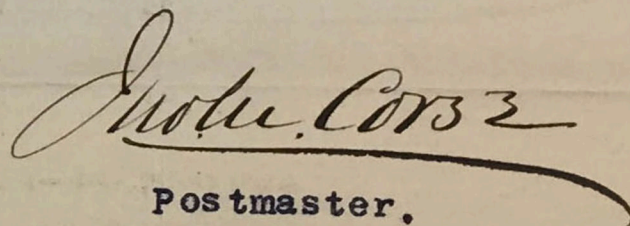

DANIEL N. VAUX, Esq.,

Superintendent of the Mint, Philadelphia, Penn.

My Dear Mr. VAUX,--

I want to obtain three coins of 1887,-- one three-cent piece, one twenty-five cent piece, and one fifty-cent piece. Enclosed please find one dollar, for which I wish you would have the above coins safely packed and sent by registered letter, at your earliest convenience, to my address, and oblige

Yours Very Respectfully,

Postmaster.

(Money Enclosed.)

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 146

(Dictated.)

Post Office, Boston, Mass.,
Office of the Postmaster
June 23, 1887

Daniel N. Vaux, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Mint, Philadelphia, Penn.

My Dear Mr. Vaux, --

I want to obtain three coins of 1887, - one three-cent piece, one twenty-five cent piece, and one fifty-cent piece. Enclosed please find one dollar, for which I wish you would have the above coins safely packed and sent by registered letter, at your earliest convenience, to my address, and oblige.

Yours Very Respectfully,
Jno. M. Corse
Postmaster.

(Money Enclosed.)